11 May 2022

Dear Parents, Guardians & Community members,

We have seen a recent increase in the number of sick children at school in the last couple of weeks. Families have done such a great job this year keeping students home when they are sick. We just have a little further to go. Thank you for your help keeping everyone at school safe and healthy.

Please remember May 13, 2022 is a professional development day for teachers and a day off for students. It looks like it will be a beautiful sunny day throughout Grand Isle County. We hope you get to have a great day with your children while teachers spend the day learning. Enjoy the long weekend.

Community Meeting

Wednesday, May 11, 2022 at 6:00 p.m.

The link and telephone number for this week's community meeting are below. I'm getting ready to start winding down Community Meetings for this year. On the 11th, 18th, and 25, I'll be looking for feedback from community members about what the format for the Community Meetings could look like next year. I hope you'll stop by and share your ideas. As always there will be a time for the community to ask questions and share experiences.

Thank you for helping to ensure that all members of the GISU learning community are curious, creative, courageous, and capable of pursuing their aspirations in a diverse and ever changing world.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Clark
